Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield

Comply with Clinical Information Requests

Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield requires that treating physician, clinician or supplier comply with all requests for documentation from the Plan. Providers are responsible for providing any and all related medical records, answer questions from health plan representatives or furnish any necessary information when requested. Information must be submitted in a timely manner, be complete and legible as well as identify the provider and date of service.

Anthem peer reviewers look forward to working with you to ensure that our members’ coverage determinations are made in a timely manner.
